

CHOICE

It's mine.

It's what makes New Brunswick so great. Choice. Speak French, speak English, or communicate in both. As Canada's only officially bilingual province we are in a unique position to have it both ways.

So go ahead. Speak French or speak English. The choice really is yours.

It's mine.

English or French? Whatever your choice, remember you do have a one. Especially when it comes to provincial government services. You have the right to be served in the official language of your choice by the courts, policing services, city hall, and other provincial institutions.

So go ahead. Speak English or speak French. The choice really is yours.

It's mine.

Choice is good. And having a choice in language is what makes New Brunswick – New Brunswick. Wherever you go in this province you can receive provincial government services in either English or French – in fact it's a right. But if for any reason this doesn't happen, there is something you can do. Contact our office and we'll look in to it for you.

So go ahead. Speak English or speak French. The choice really is yours.
